

Bullet in my Soul

The Dogma

Sometimes it hurts
When your love breaks your heart
And your life seems to get pleasure from your tears

Lonely, lonely with nobody by your side
Wasted, wasted, wasted time
This is how you feel

Darkness and fear
Just take your deepest breath
Stay alive and watch them die

When you believe
That you've lost everything
Stand up and scream
Break the silence of your sleep

Lonely, lonely with nobody by your side
Wasted, wasted, wasted time
This is how you feel

Darkness and fear
Just take your deepest breath
Stay alive and let them feel
Darkness and fear
Just take your deepest breath
Stay alive and watch them die

It's not the time for your requiem
Just cross the depths of their hate
Let your soul rise from the hell
They all will cry 'till the end

Like a bullet in my soul
Their eyes heavy like stones
They are watching
They are watching me
Still playing on my own
My mistakes and all my faults
Like a bullet
A bullet in my soul
