

Christine Closed Her Eyes

The Dogma

Dance with your fears
Bleed all your tears
In your heart

You fell away
Like the winter's rain
In the night

Where is the girl I knew?
Where is the place you dream?
Just a hole in you

Christine
Closed her eyes tonight
The world...
The world she couldn't hide

No...Nobody knew
Their souls are full
Full of lies

Where is the girl I knew?
Where is the place you dream?
Just a hole in you

Christine
Closed her eyes tonight
The world...
The world she couldn't hide
Christine
Lost her frozen tears
In her eyes
Just sorrows and fears

Girl
So now you're gone
You left me alone
Without your smile
Please
Come back to me
You killed my dreams
Tomorrow's gone
