

Devil's Bride

The Dogma

Look at my eyes what do you see
Taste my flesh how do you feel
The Blood inside my veins is running slow

I believed all that you said
Dogma Twisting crying in my bed
It's so strange how easily
Devil's Love turns to hate

Rage is boiling in my mind
Like a cancer growing from inside
Bride

Ice instead of your heart
Creature without feelings
Servant of the darkness hellchild

Night please take away her eyes,
Her smile, her memory
Moonlight godfather of all lies
My rose was full of spines

I remember how it began
That damned night that damned place
When I fell into your spider's web
Looked at me with angel eyes
Like a devil in disguise
On my knees alone I wonder why

Rage is boiling in my mind
Like a cancer growing from inside

Ice instead of your heart
Creature without feelings
Servant of the darkness hellchild

Night please take away her eyes,
The Her smile, her memory
Moonlight godfather of all lies
My rose was full of spines
Dogma

Your selfish pride your endless lies
Your twisted games my lonely praying
Devil's Your heart and soul
Are made of steal and glass
Your plastic love I want no more
Bride
Rage is boiling in my mind
Like an cancer growing from inside

Look at my eyes what do you see
Taste my flesh how do you feel
Blood inside my veins is running slow

I believed all that you said
Twisting crying in my bed
It's so strange how easily
