

Maryann

The Dogma

Living day by day
Losing my self away
My life seems to fade away
The Like the night in the morning shine

I want to live another day
Dogma This is time for me to pray
To this lord that disappears
Mary Just when I'm lost in fear

But tonight there's a fire in my eyes
Ann Tonight a star burning in the sky

Mary Ann, Mary Ann, will you stay by my side?
Will you dance by moonlight?

We will dance the night away
In my heart there's a flame
And together all my fears will fade an disappear

Running from the pain I will live again
Tomorrow all could end without you I can't stand

But tonight there's a fire in my eyes
Tonight a star is burning in the sky

Mary Ann, Mary Ann, will you stay by my side?
Will you dance by moonlight?

Mary Ann, Mary Ann pain will die in my hands
We will shout till the end

Time's arrived angel of light
She took by the hand my soul
The I'll live forever deep in your heart
And you'll never be alone

Dogma

Mary Ann, Mary Ann, will you stay by my side?
Will you dance for me tonight?
