

Queen Of The Damned

The Dogma

Your souls was born in hell's fire
Dark shade of human desire
Image of passion and fury
Wild celebration of nature

Black hair as a night without stars
Female grace with animal instinct
Muse of sin and destruction
To you i will surrender

In my dreams you're always there...
Symphonia...queen of the damned

Steal crowns from the kings
Do as you will...
And set your tyranny

Queen, spread your disease
Lead us to sin
Show me your majesty

Cold eyes shining like diamonds
Black blood runs through your body
Sweet lover ultimate warrior
No man can keep your power

Insane melancholy princess
You'll turn the world into ashes insane melancholy woman
All fear name Symphonia

In my dreams you're always there Symphonia...
I'll be your slave

Steal crowns from the kings
Do as you will...
And set your tyranny

Queen, spread your disease
Lead us to sin
Show me your majesty

No flames, no stakes will stop your rage
Funeral pyres can't kill your pride
Let flow your power like the river styx
You can't escape your destiny

Steal crowns from the kings
Lead us to sin
Your glory'll live eternally
