

The Bride Is Back

The Dogma

Let's star another journey
We'll bring you down the depths of hell
No need to be so worried
'Cause we know how to come back
So just relax and feel the power
It's time to bang your head
'Til you'll break your neck

You're waiting for the rain
You' lived through the sands of time
You're riding in the dark
This time the Bride is back!

We knocked on Heaven's doorway
But Peter came and kicked my ass!
Then we went to Valhalla
But Odin said "Get out of my way!"
No chance for us to reach Nirvana
So we went down to earth
To do what we do best

You're waiting for the rain
You' lived through the sands of time
You're riding in the dark
This time the Bride is back!
You're waiting for the rain
You're riding in the dark
The Bride is back!
