

Hot Pants

The Donnas

Hey little girl you're runnin all over town
I know about you yeah you really get around
Well I hate to say it but your clothes don't fit you right
And tonight I think you've got your hot pants on too tight

You're always wearing those hot pants
You say you're lookin for romance
But when I 'm around you know you haven't got a chance
You're always wearing those hot pants
But I know that no one wants to dance with you tonight

Hey little girl you're tryin to get with my guy
I've got two words hands off or baby I'll make you cry
I don't pull hair and I don't fight dirty
But piss me off at 9 and you're lunchmeat by 9:30

Well you've got the moves but your hair is so last year
And you've got the attitude but you're wearing your headgear
Everybody knows you put the ho in ho ho's
And you're in my face and I wanna break your nose
