

Keep Moving

The Downtown Fiction

Wake up
She looks at the old town
Nothing's changed and she feels like a let down
Asks herself 'Just where am I going from here?'
She signed up for community college
Works part-time, she can barely afford it
And hopes one day she might get a place of her own

We were lost
We were born to be found

We're gonna keep on moving
Until the stars come crashing down
Yeah, we're gonna keep on losing
'Cause there's no sense stopping now

Starstruck kid
He think's he's a poet
Too far gone now to see through the bullshit
He just wants to write you a line you can quote
Sleepless nights, always dying to please them
Try as you might, but you'll never please them
Work so hard but you don't get a thing in return

We were lost
We were born to be found

We're gonna keep on moving
Until the stars come crashing down
Yeah, we're gonna keep on losing
'Cause there's no sense stopping now

We're gonna keep on moving
Till the stars have faded out
Yeah, we're gonna keep on losing
'Cause there's no sense stopping
There's no sense stopping now

We were lost
But we know we're gonna find it
Keep on searching
Always searching

You can't stop us
Never stop us

We're gonna keep on moving
Until the stars come crashing down
Yeah, we're gonna keep on losing
'Cause there's no sense stopping now

We're gonna keep on moving
Till the stars have faded out
Yeah, we're gonna keep on losing
'Cause there's no sense stopping
There's no sense stopping now

'Cause there's no sense stopping now