

Adorable

The Drifters

Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby
You're adorable, sweet as can be
You're adorable, a dream girl to me
You're all that I hoped my love would ever be

(Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby)
You're so lovable, when you're in my arms
You're so kissable, when I hold your charms
You're mine, you are so divine, my adorable one, dorable one

You must have come from he-heaven
Because you thrill me so
My heaven starts at seven sharp
You start my heart to glow, glow, glow
(You start my heart)

You're so huggable, so clinging, so nice
You're excitable when kissed once or twice
And soon you'll be mine alone, you adorable one
(Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby)

You must have come from he-heaven
Because you thrill me so
My heaven starts at seven sharp
You start my heart to glow
(You start my heart)

So lovable, so clinging, so nice
You're excitable when kissed once or twice
And soon you'll be mine alone, you adorable one
(Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby)

Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby
Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby
Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby
