

Soldier of Fortune

The Drifters

I'm known as a soldier of fortune
A drifter with vagabond heart
They see me each night with a new love
They can't tell I'm playing a part

I'm known as a soldier of fortune
A taker of love where its found
They can't tell the way my hearts aching
It's breaking cos your not around

Your love was mine for too short a time
But if you find your new loves not true
Remember dear I will still be here
For me there's only you

That's why I'm a soldier of fortune
In search of new love constantly
And I'll be a soldier of fortune till you bring your love back
to me

And I'll be a soldier of fortune till you bring your love back
to me
