

Someday You'll Want Me to Want You

The Drifters

I know that someday ya' gonna want me to want you
When I'm in love with somebody new
You'll expect me, you'll expect to be true
And to go on wantin' you, although
I'm feelin' blue, you'd think I can't forget you.

Until someday, you know,
Ya' gonna want me, baby, to want you
When I'm in love
When I'm in love with somebody new
And though you don't want me
You don't want me now
You know I'll get along somehow
And then, I won't, and I won't want you.

Although you do not want me now
Oh, little baby, I'm gonna get along somehow
And then, I won't, and then, I won't want you.

Listen to me when I talk to you, honey!
