Kiss Me Again

The Drums

I cannot complain today Because I'm around you And I cannot look the other way Because I love you And its hard to admit That deep in my cold heart There's a voice that screams out And its screaming Give it to me, give it to me Ooh ahh Kiss me again, kiss me again Kiss me again, kiss me again Ooh ahh Kiss me again, kiss me again Kiss me again, kiss me again Blissful ignorance Let me sink into it for a while Like a child Let me feel like a child And its hard not to be ashamed But deep in my cold heart There's a voice that screams out And its screamin' Give it to me, give it to me Ooh ahh Kiss me again, kiss me again I never want to go I want to stay right here I wanna be here so long Ooh ahh

Kiss me again, kiss me again Kiss me again, kiss me again Ooh ahh Kiss me again, kiss me again Kiss me again, kiss me again
