

Saddest Summer

The Drums

If you've got a boyfriend
Well go kiss him
If you've got a girlfriend
Well go kiss her
'Cause she needs it
She wants it
Yeah, he needs it
He's gotta have it
Just like I need it
I want it
Yeah I need it
I gotta have it

Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
One weekend you're acting crazy
I might have to hate you, baby
This ain't what I thought it would be
This is the saddest summer ever
The saddest summer ever

And if you've got some children
Well just love 'em
If you've got a baby
Well just hold 'em
'Cause they need it
They want it
Yeah they need it
They gotta have it
Just like I need it
I want it
Yeah I need it
I gotta have it

Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
One weekend you're acting crazy
I might have to hate you, baby
This ain't what I thought it would be
This is the saddest summer ever
The saddest summer ever

Come on!
Yeah
Come on!
Yeah

Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
One weekend you're acting crazy
I might have to hate you, baby
This ain't what I thought it would be
This is the saddest summer ever
Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
One weekend you're acting crazy
I might have to hate you, baby

This ain't what I thought it would be
This is the saddest summer ever
The saddest summer ever

Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady

Summer's just beginning, baby
I might learn to hate you, lady
One weekend you're acting crazy
I might have to hate you, baby
This ain't what I thought it would be
This is the saddest summer ever
