

Bottom Of The Sea

The Duke Spirit

I swam to the bottom of the sea
For you
I climbed to the top of the trees
For you

I swam to the bottom of the sea
For you
I climbed to the top of the trees
For you

Farewell my lovely
Your face has shriveled off
In the heat of the sun
Yeah I said so long, bye to thee
No more of your ugly ways
Another word to no one

I tried hard to be a different freak
For you
Oh I got up so early just for you
For you

Yeah I swam to the bottom of the sea
For you
I climbed to the top of the trees
For you

Farewell my lovely
No more of your ugly ways
You little bitch

Yeah I said so long bye to thee
You don't know how much I hated
Your presence here

There was a sand
A dusty sand
That smothers 'round you tries to shroud your thinking somehow

And there's a heart
A broken heart
Inside it's molten rock it split and ran down my chest

There is a sand, a dusty sand
That smothers when you, tries to shroud your thinking somehow

There is a heart,
A broken heart inside it's molten rock is split and ran down my chest

I say well bye farewell so long to thee
And no more of you
You little witch
Oh I say farewell my lovely
You don't know how much I hated
Your presence here

Yeah I say so long by to thee

No more of your ugly ways, ugly ways

Yeah I say bye farewell so long to thee
No more of you, you little witch

I swam to the bottom of the sea for you
I climbed to top of the trees
For you
