

Surrender

The Duke Spirit

Grow, grow, shooting the summer rain
A sense, someone is pulling me
Grow, grow, I'm free
And if it's all too late, I'll fall to who's calling me

I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender

Kind eyes, juice they drag from my mind
The prize, winning is all
Reach out, take me
Oh the way that our affair got worse, so you have to stay here

I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender

I couldn't keep my eyes open, I'm so, so tired
I couldn't keep a secret, even if I tried
I couldn't keep my eyes open, I'm so, so tired
I couldn't keep a secret, even if I tried
I couldn't keep my eyes open, I'm so, so tired
And I just want to surrender

I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
I just want to surrender
