

Burn Your Ghosts

The Duskfall

Deception is a word we wear to perfection.
Another veil born from lies.
We've stuck our heads in the ground for too long.
No, we'll reap what we've sown.

So where is your god?
Corruption and greed.
I stand by my word and I bow to none!

So burn your ghosts and bury your dead.
Salvation in Blood and we are reborn.

Corruption is the path that leads to extinction.
Their agenda is set on default.
We've stuck our heads in the sand for too long.
Open up and show your response.

So where is your god?
Corruption and greed.
I stand by my word and I bow to none!

So burn your ghosts and bury your dead.
Salvation in Blood and we are reborn.

So burn your ghosts and bury your dead.
Salvation in Blood and we are reborn.
