

Endgame

The Duskfall

Beat me down and I stand right back up.
Try to beat me up, I'll never back down.
Bring back the smiles in our lives.
Don't make us beg for this!

Scream out the revolution, now go for broke.
Scream out the revolution.

We're preparing for the endgame.
We must lead to start a war.

It's time to stop the trust and blindly follow.
Tear your blindfold down to see the truth.
Bring back the smiles in our lives.
Don't make us kill for this!

Scream out the revolution, now go for broke.
Scream out the revolution.

We're preparing for the endgame.
We must lead to start a war.

Fall in line.
Mow the lawn.
Loosen the tie, then go back home.
Fall in line.
Mow the lawn.
Loosen the tie, then go back home.
Fall in line.
Mow the lawn.
Loosen the tie, then go back home.
Fall in line.
Mow the lawn.
Loosen the tie, then die fucking alone.

We're preparing for the endgame.
We must lead to start a war.
