

I've Only Got Knives for You

The Duskfall

Seeing deserts in all your eyes
I saw hate inside
The rabid Gogs
You're acting like

We know just how it all ends
Still we won't change a thing

No more memories
We travel on
We got fooled again
In all the same ways
GOod times are gone

We know just how it all ends
Still we won't change a thing

I've only got knives for you
I'll show no remorse
I've only got hate towards you
I've only got knives for you
I'll show no remorse
I've only got hate towards you

Seeing through those lies
It's clearer now
I bled on your side
Until the end
Not worth a thing

I've only got knives for you
I'll show no remorse
I've only got hate towards you
I've only got knives for you
I'll show no remorse
I've only got hate towards you
