

Relive Your Fall

The Duskfall

Who do you represent? Be exact, be definite now what the hell are you? I can see through you.
The introvert man without sound, taking ground
the sinister man, without doubt.
With no intention to save, with no solution or cure.
To cure this breed - this kind, to save this breed - it's mind.

Relive this all and enjoy all your falls
where we are going we won't be standing as tall.
Come on now take it with a smile, can't you see this comedy in this?
We are falling...

Now you are afraid of dying

Scared to death of dying now your soul is shining.
Yet you are running fast and you're hoping it will last.
Do you really think that it's just a link?
