

Shadows and Cancer

The Duskfall

I Can not stay here for long
It's so bright it hurts my eyes
The damage it's done to my brain
And I only lived for the taste of heaven
A glimpse of clear blue sky

No sanctity waiting for me
No safeway out of here
So hard to stay alive
No ghouls to set me free
No angels will come down for me

A Fevered touch of my bony hand
The life I've lived I try to deny
The rush of time took me by surprise
How casually a life passes by

When dreams materialize
Nobody will hear me say it
A dialogue with the deaf
A one-way conversation
It's all what it has come to
This is all wath we do

No sanctity waiting for me
No safeway out of here
So hard to stay alive
No ghouls to set me free
No angels will come down for me

A Fevered touch of my bony hand
The life I've lived I try to deny
The rush of time took me by surprise
How casually a life passes by
