

We Bleed

The Duskfall

I lost the fight of life, knocked out before the bell.
A new beginning from my knees.
I'm aiming for the prize, can't live with all these lies.
Now I know just what to do.

Got to rise and stand again, that's how we make it.
Got to rise and stand again, together we knock 'em down.

I fight for you, you do the same for me, as we bleed.
I kill for you, you do the same for me, then we bleed.

I sting just like a bee.
I crave the best concerning me to get up and fight again.
I'm aiming for the prize, can't live with all these cries.
Now I know just what to do.

Got to rise and stand again, that's how we make it.
Got to rise and stand again, together we knock 'em down.

I fight for you, you do the same for me, as we bleed.
I kill for you, you do the same for me, then we bleed.

Got to rise and stand again, that's how we make it.
Got to rise and stand again, together we knock 'em down.
Got to rise and stand again, that's how we make it.
Got to rise and stand again, together we knock 'em down.

I fight for you, you do the same for me, as we bleed.
I kill for you, you do the same for me, then we bleed.
