

Sounds Of The City

The Dykeenies

You take more, you loose more
Your giving up on what your fighting for Another night, on your own
Another digit and the puzzles gone

I need you, and you don't need me
And I'll need you, more than you'll need me
I am ready to go anywhere with you
I am ready to go anywhere with you

A late night, a ring tone
Another reason to go to bed
Another night by the phone
Another digit and puzzle ends

I need you, and you don't need me
And I'll need you, more than you'll need me
I am ready to go anywhere with you
I am ready to go anywhere with you
I am ready to go anywhere with you
I am ready to go anywhere with you

You've taken pills for your thrills
And, you've taken pills for your thrills
And, you've taken pills for your thrills
And, you've taken pills for your thrills

And, I need you, and you don't need me
And I'll need you, more than you'll need me
I am ready to go anywhere with you
(shake!)
I am ready to go anywhere with you
(shake!)
I am ready to go anywhere with you
(shake!)
I am ready to go anywhere with you
(shake! shake!)

Sick of something, sick of nothing, time to give it in, to the problem
This is working, it's wishful thinking, there's no escaping, what's happening

Sick of something, sick of nothing, time to give it in, to the problem
This is working, it's wishful thinking, there's no escaping, what's happening

I am ready to go anywhere with you
