The Echoing Green

I've seen the nightfall turn to day
With every single word You say
An element of light I long to share
Something cosmic's in the air

Something cosmic's in the air...

Something cosmic's in the air...

Something cosmic's in the air...

I've seen the nightfall turn to day
With every single word You say
An element of light I long to share
Something cosmic's in the air
