

In The Garden

The Eighties Matchbox B-Line Disaster

And in the garden, yeah, I was the first
The first to win a place on this bad earth
I lay around under the apple trees
My name is Adam in the garden of Eden

Oh dear (2x)

And then a serpent turned and said to me
"Why don't you pick an apple from the tree?"
I said to it "I don't know if I should"
"Oh what the hell," it said, "it tastes so good"

Don't you want me in the garden (3x)
Don't you want me

I turned around and then I said to Eve
"Why don't you pick an apple from the tree?"
She said to me she don't know if she should
"But what the hell," I said, "it tastes so good"

And then as soon as we did take a bite
A feeling came, something was not quite right
I turned to Eve and said "What have we done?"
She said she don't know, but it feels so wrong

Don't you want me in the garden (5x)
Don't you want me

Apple of my eye (2x)

Don't you want me in the garden (4x)
Don't you want me
