

When I Hear You Call My Name

The Eighties Matchbox B-Line Disaster

I'm innocent, I'm leaving dead
I've got a hole in my head

When I hear you call my name
I wish that I could see you smile
Then you hit me and I feel the pain
I see the place where we meet and stay
We can go there if you want too
All the rooms are dirt cheap and six feet
I'm feeling bad and I can't play
Don't tell them all the things I've told you
I'm alone so I guess
I'm playing with myself today

You became what you wanted to hate
You become what you wanted to love
You became what you wanted to hate
You become what you wanted to love
You became what you wanted to hate
You become what you wanted to love

When I call again

Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight, Show up tonight
Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight, Show up tonight

When I'm talking to my brother
The one who lives there in the mirror
He's smiling back at me
Saying everything's ok
When I build things out of thoughts
Do you think of me as I do you
I guess I use both hands
Do you think at all
When I hear you call my name
I pretend that I can't hear you
Its ok cos its better than anything you say

You became what you wanted to hate
You become what you wanted to love
You became what you wanted to hate
You become what you wanted to love
You became what you wanted to hate
You become what you wanted to love

When I call again

Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight, Show up tonight

Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight, Show up tonight

I'm innocent, I'm leaving dead
I've got a hole in my head
And I can see your misery
You are young

Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight, Show up tonight
Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight, Show up tonight

Here tonight with your hearts and faces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your love, gunna face it
Show up tonight, Show up tonight
Here tonight with your airs and graces
Show up tonight because I need someone
Here tonight with your hearts and faces
