

Have You Ever Felt Like It's Too Late

The Electric Soft Parade

I tried to make it look like you'd been cruel
What else could I do? I was holding onto you
I thought you'd run away and leave me small Little did I know, you were holding out for a call

Now who can we trust to open the door
Have you ever really been there?
Have you ever felt immortal?
Have you ever felt like it's too late?

I watched you take your love to someone else
The stupid things I said, what was happening in my head?
The times are changing and I'm all for that but you've got to watch your step with a noose around your neck
