

Boston Massachusetts

The Ergs!

Heard a song
From the album "Boston, Mass."
By the Del Fuegos the other day

It sounded good
I remembered how you used to like them
So I wrote this letter but I didn't send it out

Did you ever get married?
I don't think I wanna know
'Cause this torch that I carry
Is burnin' up my soul

When I heard them sing the verses
Of "Hand In Hand" and "I Still Want You"
In that record store in Brooklyn
It made me think about that summer and you

And you and the album "Boston, Mass."
By the Del Fuegos the other day
