

Everything Falls Apart (and More)

The Ergs!

Girl of mine
Why don't you go and tell another lie
Why don't you go because the truth hurts much too much sometime s
So baby tell another lie

Sugarcoat the truth and baby tell me that you love me again
'cause I couldn't bear to hear I'm just another one of your friends

And you don't have to be sincere just tell me what I want to hear

Sugarcoat the truth 'cause I don't wanna be the one left behind

And I couldn't live knowing that I was never worth and time

And I got reason to believe That you know just how to deceive

Gimme something I can hold onto 'cause you know I'm still in love with you gimme something I can take back home
'cause I don't wanna be alone
