

Your Cheated Heart

The Ergs!

Your cheated heart is getting rusty
Your cheated heart has never been so broken
Your cheated heart is through with trusting
Your cheated heart is nothing new

A blank expression on a fuzzy screen
Tells me things couldn't get much worse
You say you're giving up on love
He ruined it for everyone
I wish I'd gotten there first

'Cause then you'd be feeling like a queen
And I'd be holding the girl of my dreams
I could help you mend your cheated heart
