Your Cheated Heart

Your cheated heart is getting rusty Your cheated heart has never been so broken Your cheated heart is through with trusting Your cheated heart is nothing new

A blank expression on a fuzzy screen Tells me things couldn't get much worse You say you're giving up on love He ruined it for everyone I wish I'd gotten there first

'Cause then you'd be feeling like a queen And I'd be holding the girl of my dreams I could help you mend your cheated heart

The Ergs!
