

All is Empty

The Essence

And I
Just wanted to stay with you
But won't you hold me now
That's all I say
But don't you want me now
That's all I have
'Cause all I ever wanted was you in my arms
At night you said: "Will you always believe me? Promise to stay"
How well did I know her
Although I knew her
Not that I cared much
Oh!
Hiding away
From all those things I said
Words that just came from my mouth
I'll always regret
But don't you want me now
All that's left
'Cause all I ever wanted was you in my arms
The night we cried
We were always so sure of
Needless to say things
Know that we always...
Why do I care
How well did I know her
Oh!
All I tried
Was holding you down
I know that I killed you
Know that I scarred you
Over and over
But all that I ever
Wanted was you here
Wanted was you
And I just wanted to break your heart
'Cause all I ever wanted was you in my arms
Now that I know
That you're
Gone and forever
Always alone
As long as I know
Why do I care so much
Now I know her
