

Gone

The Essence

all the love has gone
and my world comes to an end all the love that was
leaves me cold and alone

oh my heart it bleeds
and it cries out in the night
all my dreams have gone
as they turned into ice

all the feelings gone and the night comes to an end all the hatred gone
as it fades in despair

all the tears have gone and i scream from within

(chorus)
all night i cried
baby please
all the dreams that we leave behind baby don't leave, i'll go crazy tonight!

all the memories gone
and i try to forget baby stay the same as you smiled while we danced

all the dreams have gone and i cry from within
and it aches
and it burns and it burns yeah!

baby, don't leave me tonight everything is right!!

and the world comes to an end
