

Always It's You

The Everly Brothers

When I feel downhearted
When I'm feeling blue
When I'm low and lonely
Who do I turn to?
It's you, always it's you

When I'm dreaming daydreams
Who comes into view?
Who shares all my daydreams
Who makes them come true?
It's you, always it's you

When I feel like smiling
You're the reason why
If I ever lost you
I'd cry and cry

Ohh, hold me close my true love
Kiss me tenderly
There is only one love
One alone for me
It's you, always it's you
Always it's you
