Don't Say Goodnight

The Everly Brothers

Fifteen years come December: We were so young; do you still remember When I fell in love with you? And like an older brother would do

I'd keep tellin' you things like Don't go walkin' past midnight, Don't wear those sweaters that fit so tight Unless you're alone here with me That's the way I always want it to be

Don't say goodnight, You know I never want to let you go Don't say goodnight Oh baby, hold me close and don't say no One more hour, if we could; You make me feel so good Say it's all right Darlin', don't say goodnight

Your daddy said he'd disown you He'd get so nervous every time I'd 'phone you I tried to make him understand You were a woman then, and I was your man

I'd be tellin' him things like I swear that I'll always love her, I'll break my back to keep a roof above her Then he'd say it's time for you to go in Oh baby, I'd just want to kiss you again

Don't say goodnight You know I never want to let you go Don't say goodnight. Oh baby, hold me close and don't say no One more hour, if we could; You make me feel so good

Say it's all right Darlin', don't say goodnight Say it's alright Darlin', don't say goodnight

Say it's alright Darlin', don't say goodnight Say it's alright Darlin', don't say goodnight
