Give Me a Future

The Everly Brothers

Oh-oh-oh, say you'll be mine Give me future All I have is the past that a-didn't last That a-ruins my chances with you The years ahead hold nothing but the thought That maybe I won't have you Nothin' can compare to the loneliness That forces me to plead with you Oh-oh-oh, say you'll be mine Give me a future Your arms to hold me tight That's what I need You lips, to kiss goodnight And try to please Your eyes, to see the love For which I reach Please say the words that make you mine For all I have is the past that a-didn't last That a-ruins my chances with you The years ahead hold nothing but the thought That maybe I won't have you Nothin' can compare to the loneliness That forces me to plead with you Oh-oh-oh, say you'll be mine Give me a future
