Leave My Girl Alone

The Everly Brothers

I don't even wanna know your name fella I don't even wanna know your game fella All I wanna know, is when're you gonna leave my girl alone All I wanna know, is when're you gonna leave my girl alone

I'm not trying to prove I can be tough fella But I think I've had about enough fella All I wanna know, is when're you gonna leave my girl alone All I wanna know, is when're you gonna leave my girl alone

I got trouble enough without having you to fight And you'd better get it straight I'm gonna keep my girl whether you think it's wrong right

I don't even wanna know your name fella I just want my life to stay the same fella All I wanna know, is when're you gonna leave my girl alone All I wanna know, is when're you gonna leave my girl alone
