

That's Just Too Much

The Everly Brothers

Your lips that once thrilled me
Now frown and disagree
Your words have lost that tender touch
That's just too much
To take
Too much

Your arms that once held me
Feel cold and just chill me
Somehow they've lost their tender touch
That's just too much
To bear
Too much

Could I have been so young and blind
To think you loved me all this time

Your lips that once thrilled me
Now frown and disagree
Your words have lost that tender touch
That's just too much
To take
Too much
To bear
Too much
To take...
