

That Uncertain Feeling

The Everly Brothers

That uncertain feeling
That's with me today
Walked into my life and tempted me away.
You know I'm not free now
And I'm ashamed to say
That uncertain feeling is a game we have to play.
That uncertain feeling
Is still on my mind

We're worlds apart now you say we're two of a kind,
Both searching for paradise,
That we lost along the way
That uncertain feeling only two can play,
That uncertain feeling, gotta drive it away

Who knows where the road will lead us,
And when tomorrow comes

All that matters is you believe in what you're doing, not what you've done.
And I know that I'll be hurting someone while we're having fun.
So if you don't mind I'll be leaving soon:
Got a lot to catch up, got a lot to do with...
That uncertain feeling
Won't leave me alone

We're out having good times when I'm needed back at home.
You know that I want you
But I'm ashamed to say
That uncertain feeling only two can play,
That uncertain feeling, gotta drive it away,
That uncertain feeling only two can play
