That Uncertain Feeling

The Everly Brothers

That uncertain feeling That's with me today Walked into my life and tempted me away. You know I'm not free now And I'm ashamed to say That uncertain feeling is a game we have to play. That uncertain feeling Is still on my mind

We're worlds apart now you say we're two of a kind, Both searching for paradise, That we lost along the way That uncertain feeling only two can play, That uncertain feeling, gotta drive it away

Who knows where the road will lead us, And when tomorrow comes

All that matters is you believe in what you're doing, not what you've done. And I know that I'll be hurting someone while we're having fun. So if you don't mind I'll be leaving soon: Got a lot to catch up, got a lot to do with... That uncertain feeling Won't leave me alone

We're out having good times when I'm needed back at home. You know that I want you But I'm ashamed to say That uncertain feeling only two can play, That uncertain feeling, gotta drive it away, That uncertain feeling only two can play
