

This Is the Last Song I'm Ever Going to Sing

The Everly Brothers

This is the last song I'm ever going to sing
The last time I'll play my old guitar
I wasted my life and I didn't gain a thing
Oh I'm never gonna be a star

I came to Nashville a long time ago
People said that I could be a star
But all that I remember is loneliness and hunger
Oh sure didn't get so far

This is the last song I'm ever going to sing
The last time I'll play my old guitar
I wasted my life and I didn't gain a thing
Oh I'm never gonna be a star

The big time operators made a fool out of me
It sure don't feel so good to fail
I've slept on every park bench in every park in Nashville
Oh I slept in a Nashville jail

This is the last song I'm ever going to sing
The last time I'll play my old guitar
I wasted my life and I didn't gain a thing
Oh I'm never gonna be a star
Oh I'm never gonna be a star
Oh never gonna be a star
Oh I'm never gonna be a star
