

Shoes

The Ex

You prepare your shoes
To kick dirt in my face
Nearly no defense
For your fascist grace
You try to get me out
But i won't leave this place
Nothing to lose
You can't win a human race
There's no need to laugh
Don't be so amused
It's no joke to get
Falsely accused
I didn't do no harm
I only cleaned your shoes
For that is what you asked
So why all this abuse
You say i caused this crisis
You know that's not the case
It's this falling system
That you don't wanna face
You try to blacken me
But i won't leave this place
Nothing to lose
You can't win a human race
