

Do The Zombie

The Eyeliners

The night is young and the moon is full
And if you're looking for a thrill
There's a party going on at
The house on top of the hill
You know that a band will be playing
And they're gonna give you a scare
You're invited, but I'm telling you
That you better all beware
Because they
Do the zombie yeah-yeah
Don't care what they say
Do the zombie yeah-yeah
They'll be dancing till the dawn of day
He looked at her from across the room and said,
"Hey girl do you want to dance?"
She looked at him with a little grin and said,
"Why should I give you a chance?"
He said, "Don't be shy. I'm a helluva guy and I can prove to You what I say, before I'm through, you'll be doing the Zombie too" and then you could hear him say...
And he said
[Chorus]
Then the band they started to play
And everyone was in a trance
Every boy and every girl were
Doin' the zombie dance
The room was shakin' and the walls were breakin'
They were dancing in a daze
They scream and yell, now they're under the spell
Of the hypnotizing craze
Because they
[Chorus]
