

When Will I See You Again

The Eyeliners

Looks like I blew it
I screwed things up again
I sit and wonder how I got
In this predicament
Things were going great
And then they fell apart
Now you're gone
I was wrong
Will we get a new start?

[Chorus]
When I think of what was said and done
And all the things that I did wrong
When will I see you again?

Time passes slowly
When you're filled with regret
I pay my penance
When I relive it in my head
Chances not taken
And poorly chosen words
Twist of fate
Is it too late?
Tell me what's it going to take

[Chorus]

The sand is falling slowly
Through the hourglass
And I wonder how long this will last
All that I'm left with is this empty space
Will I be left with a chance
To make things right
Now that you're gone - for so long
I wonder where we went wrong

[Chorus]
