

Like Clockwork

The eyes of a traitor

It's all come to an end were moving on but not this brotherhood.
You'll never die in our hearts
Your impact in our lives

Pick up yourself.
The strong are strong and the weak are dead
Keep those words on your tongue, we will go

What will the world do without your wisdom
Get out while you still can this town will kill you Believe in your dreams and they will always be true,

We can still tear down the mountins
Underneath the burning sky,
Those times are written on our tombs.
You are gone but never forgotten your memory lives on Keep on rolling brother the skyes are open for you.
We don't mourn for you, we mourn for us because you were stolen
Fuck those who did eternal pain will follow, you always brought out the best in me.
head up these memories will never leave us
This night is ours!
