

The Eidolon Reality

The Faceless

Within a projected reality of objective physicality
Lies a false sense of universal disconnection
We are an indivisible whole separated by perspective
And at a greater depth,
Lies the holographic structure painted upon the cosmos
Gaze beyond the matrix
Beyond the eidolon reality, blinding me, a connection
unfolds
Past, present and future interpenetration
Subatomic communication
Sacred geometrics of superior precognition
Within a projected reality of objective physicality
Lies a false sense of universal disconnection
We are an indivisible whole separated by perspective
And at a greater depth, lies the holographic structure
The mental landscapes withheld in the confines of the matrix
A quantum disconnection from the realm of actuality
Beyond the eidolon reality, blinding me, a connection
unfolds
Within a projected reality of objective physicality
Black hole portals of zero-point energy manifesting infinity
