

Forever Growing Centipedes

The Faint

Every time I move I'm in another dimension
Everything I do changes what I want
I see a choice I make explode in thousands of pieces
Every time I choose I become a shard

I could take up science
And study cells of the body
Learn to postpone death
Under the microscope
I'll make my own lab coat
And built a house in the forest
You and me eating mushrooms together
We'll stretch out so long, and hope we don't sever

FOREVER GROWING CENTIPEDES
FOREVER GROWING CENTIPEDES you and I
Through time

I could step outside and walk in any direction
Everything I choose erases ghosts of potential
But it makes some new ghosts that I can fill
I can just choose one
As far as I can tell

If I veer off course I'll learn to kick out the habit
If I spin off track I know that I can change
We could both grow up to be a 150
But for now we are children together

Every time I move I'm in another dimension
Everything I do changes what I want
I see a choice I make explode in thousands of pieces
Every time I choose I become a choice

Let's build a buckminster dome on an island
We'll seal ourselves in a timeless web
If every second we make new futures
We'll see how long we can hide from death
