Nobody's Perfect

The Fall of Troy

If you want me,
you can call me, everyday and everynight.
Say you miss me,
I'll stay by your side.

If you need me,
please believe that everything will be alright.
It's so misleading,
but love gets lost in time...

Keep movin',
If all the stupid lies come out,
scream and shout.
Keep losin',
If all your friends are enemies,
just say please...

If it's easy,
if It's easier for you,
pretend it's true,
tell yourself that,
tell yourself that I never,
I never loved you anyways.

If you want me,
you can call me, everyday and everynight.
Say you miss me,
I'll stay by your side.

If you need me,
please believe that everything will be alright.
It's so misleading,
but love gets lost in time...

Well isn't this just odd,
Isn't this just perfect?
After all this shit,
I'm left here contradicting myself again.
Everything you said to me,
is dead and gone and now you'll see,
some things just aren't meant to be.
Some things aren't reality...
Half the time you're full of doubt,
half the time you sleep around.
And most the time you drink too much,
and say things you don't mean... You slut!!!

But nobody's perfect!
Right!? Right!?

Right!
