

The Circus That Has Brought Us Back to These Nights (Yo Chocola)

The Fall of Troy

Will the kids in the back deny it?!
Will the kids in the back deny it?!
Our heads are all empty, our hearts in flat lines
Will the kids in the back deny it?!
Will the kids in the back deny it?!
And blurred all the lines when I'm lying through my teeth!

When I'm backing up, can't let you go!
Wait up girl you know that I cannot run away!!!

Will the kids in the back deny it?!
Will the kids in the back deny it?!
Our heads were all empty, our hearts in flat lines
Will the kids in the back deny it?!
Will the kids in the back deny it?!
And make up our minds when you know you're wrong!!!

When I'm backing up, can't let you go!
Wait up girl you know that I cannot run away!!!

Watch your mouth when you're talking back!
With a broken heart that you never could fix!
When my broken home is about to fall out
Then that's how I'll know...

Make the same mistakes that you once were made of,
Our brains are empty, our hearts are so empty
you know, that we can't go away...
Wait, for this one
Wait, for this to pass
Wait one more fucking day!
When I'm gone, you'll always remember, the ignored affection,
To the back to the back of all that's safe!!
You know, we ran, we fell, rebuild... what we had!!!

Watch your mouth when you're talking back!
With a broken heart that you never could fix!
When my broken home is about to fall out
Then that's how I'll know...
