

Take Your Partners

The Family

God knows I'm hip
But I ain't yours or his
Everybody's arse is up for kicks
Every critic thinks he's cool
Man and word a criss-cross jewel
But me I got my own little rules
One for you, one for me
I know it don't come easily
All I know is that we'll agree
Take your partners, what for?
Ain't you just kicked in the door
How come I don't believe you any more
Here boy, have a snake
That's where you're sleeping and I'll wake
But don't strut me and my way
God knows I'm hip
But I ain't yours or his
Everybody's arse is up for kicks
