

In Your Arms

The Features

I got an image in my head.
It was chosen by my heart
So I'll remember where to end
Before I ever start.

This is where I belong,
In your arms,
In your arms.

I'll be where nothing's wrong,
In your arms,
In your arms.

I never lost my way,
But if I ever do,
There's a trail of memories
I'll follow back to you.

This is where I belong,
In your arms,
In your arms.

Find me where nothing's wrong,
In your arms,
In your arms.

This is where I belong,
In your arms,
In your arms.

Find me where nothing's wrong,
In your arms,
In your arms.
